A CARD

Stafford C. H., Va., June 12, 1906.
To The Free Lance.
In my last communication I stated that the team of horses, attached to that the team of horses, attached to the hearse conveying the body of Mr. T. W. Berrey to Fredericksburg gave out. Which compelled the funeral party to go to Madison county via Culpeper, instead of by the Narrow Guage R. R. Out of deference to Messrs. Whitner&Sacrey, the undertakers, and in justice to them, I have since learned they have generously contributed the additional expense entailed by the change of route out of their own pockets.
